

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW CHIROPRACTIC AND MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

In the course of your care as a patient at Living Healthy Chiropractic we may use or disclose personal and health related information about you in the following ways:

- *Your protected health information, including your clinical records, may be disclosed to another health care provider or hospital if it is necessary to refer you for further diagnosis, assessment or treatment.
- *Your health care records as well as your billing records may be disclosed to another party, such as an insurance carrier, an HMO, a PPO, or your employer, if they are or may be responsible for the payment of services provided to you.
- *Your name, address, phone number, and your health care records may be used to contact you regarding appointment reminders, information about alternatives to your present care, or other health related information that may be of interest to you.

You have a right to request restrictions on our use of your protected health information for treatment, payment and operations purposes. Such requests are not automatic and require the agreement of this office.

Your name, address, telephone number, e-mail address and health records may be used to contact you regarding appointment reminders, information about alternatives to your present care, or other health related information that may be of interest to you.

If you are not home to receive an appointment reminder or other related information, a message may be left on your answering machine or with a person in your household. You have a right to confidential communications and to request restrictions relative to such contacts. You also have the right to be contacted by alternative means or at alternative locations.

Your authorization is requested for purposes of delivering your care in an open-adjusting or open-door adjusting environment as described in this privacy notice. In the course of your care in either of these environments routine details of your condition and care may be disclosed to other patients or staff in the approximate vicinity of where your care is being delivered. We cannot assure that any of the details of your care will be addressed and considered as confidential by other patients.

We are permitted and may be required to use or disclose your health information without your authorization in these following circumstances:

- *If we provide health care services to you in an emergency.
- *If we are required by law to provide care to you and we are unable to obtain your consent after attempting to do so.
- *If there are substantial barriers to communicating with you, but in our professional judgment we believe that you intend for us to provide care.
- *If we are ordered by the courts or another appropriate agency

You have a right to receive an accounting of any such disclosures made by this office.

Any use or disclosure of your protected health information, other than as outlined above, will only be made upon your written authorization. If you provide an authorization for release of information you have the right to revoke that authorization at a later date.

Information that we use or disclose based on this privacy notice may be subject to re-disclosure by the person to whom we provide the information and may no longer be protected by the federal privacy rules.

We normally provide information about your health to you in person at the time you receive chiropractic care from us. We may also mail information to you regarding your health care or about the status of your account. If you would like to receive this information at an address other than your home, or, if you would like the information in a specific form, please advise us in writing as to your preferences.

We may also disclose your information to Family and Close Friends involved in your care. Our office has an open, family-centered approach to wellness and we believe it is in all our patient's best interests to have the support and cooperation of their families. Therefore, our office requires that the spouse or significant other be present when the doctor goes over the patient's report and recommendations for treatment and wellness. If you object to the presence of your spouse or significant other at your report, please let us know immediately and we can refer you to another chiropractor.

In addition, we may disclose your PHI to a family member or a close friend if those persons accompany you while you are receiving health care services; or if we determine that it is in your best interest so we can provide you with the best health care possible. We may also disclose your PHI to a family member or someone else who helps pay for your health care treatment.

You have the right to inspect and/or copy your health information for as long as the information remains in our files. In addition you have the right to request an amendment to your health information. Requests to inspect, copy or amend your health related information should be provided to us in writing on the form provided by our Practice. We will respond to your request within thirty (30) days. If you request a copy of your PHI, we may charge a fee for the costs of copying, mailing or other supplies associated with your request. If we charge a fee, we will let you know the fee prior to making the copies, so that you can withdraw or modify your request before incurring a charge.

We are required by state and federal law to maintain the privacy of your patient file and the health protected health information therein. We are also required to provide you with this notice of our privacy practices with respect to your health information. We are further required by law to abide by the terms of this notice while it is in effect.

We reserve the right to alter or amend the terms of this privacy notice. If changes are made to our privacy notice we will notify you in writing as soon as possible following the changes. Any change in our privacy notice will apply for all of your health information in our files.

If you have a complaint regarding our privacy notice, our privacy practices or any aspect of our privacy activities you should direct your complaint to: Darby Gancas at 512-345-7400.

If you would like further information about our privacy policies and practices please contact: Darby Gancas at 512-345-7400.

You also have the right to lodge a complaint with the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services. If you choose to lodge a complaint with this office or with the Secretary your care will continue and you will not be disadvantaged by this office or our staff in any manner whatsoever.

This notice is effective as of October 15, 2009.

This notice, and any alterations or amendments made hereto will expire seven years after the date upon which the record was created.
